

Driven to Distraction

A Distracted Driving Prevention Program

Presented by

ESSI

Empire State Safety Instructors

You have been directed to attend Driven to Distraction – A Distracted Driving Prevention Program and report back to the court with proof of completion of the course.

PRE-REGISTRATION IS REQUIRED

Class size is limited. Only registered students will be allowed to attend.

Visit www.empirestatesafetyinstructors.com to view the course dates, times and locations. Students need to register and pay on-line to reserve a spot in class. Exceptions to this policy will be made on a case by case basis.

Direct inquiries may be made by email at ESSI@rochester.rr.com or by phone at 585-754-4206 (leave a message clearly stating your name, phone number and brief message and you will be called back)

- You must be registered in advance to attend a class.
- Classes begin promptly as scheduled. Late arrivals will have to reschedule for a future class.
- The course registration fee is $60.00. A portion of which will be used for funding of community based distracted driving prevention programs. NO refunds.
- For those who are unable to register online, you must pre-register for class by phone or email. In those cases, only cash payments will be accepted at the door, no checks or credit cards will be accepted.