

Training Options

Financial resources may be available to pursue training opportunities

Eligibility and suitability is determined on an individual basis

Individual Training Account (ITA)

- Short Term Training in a demand occupation for eligible job-seekers
<http://www.fingerlakesworks.com/wp-content/uploads/2014/07/Demand-Occupation-List-2015-2016.pdf>
- Up to $3000.00 in tuition assistance and $5000.00 for nursing
- Research approved training providers
<https://applications.labor.ny.gov/ETPL/Search.faces>
- Training Options Workshop is open to the public designed to help you learn more about the specifics of training and eligibility in a no pressure environment. Call (315) 789-1771 to reserve your seat.
- Visit <http://www.fingerlakesworks.com> to view job leads and the calendar of events to find out when the next training options workshop is scheduled.
- Research via the internet with NYJobZone or ONET Online to find answers to questions such as
 - Do I meet minimum entry requirements?
 - What kind of income can I expect?
 - Do I understand exactly what is involved?
 - Will I get the support I need to successfully complete the program?
 - Will my training lead to better, full-time employment?
 - Are there abundant jobs available in this region?

Helping you to decide if training is right for you contact

LeeAnn Haust
Workforce Counselor
Ontario County Workforce Development
(315) 789-1771 ext. 117
LeeAnn.Haust@dfa.state.ny.us